Comments for Public Posting: A permanent ceasefire does not follow from the incidents on UCLA and USC campus. In otherwords, it won't change anything about potential police brutality.

Comments for Public Posting:	My name is Mr Roth. I am an American taxpayer. I am opposed to item 24. It is wrong to support willful and premeditated violations of federal laws and University policies. The students arrested unleashed violence on the LAPD. The LAPD is to be commended for doing their jobs at USC and UCLA. Those arrested should face consequences for their illegal and immoral behavior. I am also opposed to showing any leniency for those who repeatedy murder, rape, torture, mutilate, and abduct babies, children, teens, and adults. Therefore, I am asking you to vote NO on the resolution for a ceasefire in Gaza. Any reported food shortage is a result of the hamas's terrorist government not distributing aid to civilians. A ceasefire will not remediate that. Only removing hamass will. Our shared humanity must not only rely on biased reporting. Let’s do the right thing and not support hate Mr R.

Comments for Public Posting:	Hello, I am a local taxpayer born and raised in the city of Los Angeles. I am opposed to item 24. It is wrong to support violations of federal laws and University policies. I fully support the actions of the LAPD to break up the illegal encampments at USC and UCLA. Those arrested should face consequences for their illegal and irresponsible behavior. Many of the protestors within the encampment at UCLA were violent and prevented Jewish students from walking freely on campus to their classes and to the library. I am also asking you to vote NO on the resolution for a ceasefire in Gaza. The food shortage is a result of the Hamas terrorist government not distributing aid to civilians. A ceasefire will not remediate that. Hamas will only take care of itself, not the citizens of Gaza. Please use common sense and do not be swayed by the few loud voices that are brainwashed by social media into supporting a terrorist organization.

Comments for Public Posting: As an American, I strongly disagree with Item 24. You should not support those who break federal laws and university policies. The students who attacked the LAPD must face severe consequences for their despicable actions. We should be praising the LAPD for maintaining order at USC and UCLA in the face of such abhorrent behavior. I am also opposed to showing any leniency for those who repeatedy murder, rape, torture, mutilate, and abduct babies. I demand that you vote NO on the resolution for a ceasefire in Gaza. The food shortage is the direct result of Hamas' terrorist regime refusing to distribute aid to civilians. A ceasefire won't solve anything; only the complete elimination of Hamas can bring about real change.

Comments for Public Posting: My name is Gil Austin and I am an American taxpayer. I am vehemently opposed to item 24 as I believe it is wrong to support willful and premeditated violations of federal laws and University policies. The students arrested unleashed violence on the LAPD. The LAPD is to be commended for doing their jobs at USC and UCLA. Those arrested must face consequences for their illegal and immoral behavior. I am also opposed to showing any leniency for those who repeatedy murder, rape, torture, mutilate, and abduct babies, children, teens, and adults. Therefore, I am asking you to vote NO on the resolution for a ceasefire in Gaza. Any reported food shortage is a result of the hamas's terrorist government not distributing aid to civilians. A ceasefire will not remediate that. Only removing Hamas will. According to a recent research report titled "Nutritional Assessment of Food Aid Delivered to Gaza by land and air drops, during the 2024 War" which was a nutritional assessment of food aid in Gaza, analyzing the quantity of aid and its "compliance with population needs," researchers acquired the registry of all food aid delivered to Gaza via air and land delivery between January-April 2024 from Israel's Coordinator of Government Activities in the Territories (COGAT). They found that the average nutritional energy supplied per say was 3,374 kcal per person, protein was 101 gr (12.1% of energy), fat was 80.6 gr (21.5% of energy), and iron was 25.2 mg. Energy, protein, and fat amounts exceed Sphere recommendations. Comparing the recommendations of the Sphere Guidelines versus the reported findings, Sphere recommend 2,100 Kcal a day, whereas the average food aid per person in Gaza was reported as 3,374 Kcal. Sphere recommend that 10% of the overall intake should be from protein; the Gaza aid was found to be 12.1% on average. Therefore, it is not Israel preventing food from reaching the Gazan population: it is once again Hamas — a globally recognized terror organization that started this war in the first place by slaughtering over 1200 innocent Israelis and foreigners and kidnapping, raping and torturing hundreds more all in an single day. Just as the world fully supported the removal of ISIS from power, the world must now support the removal of Hamas from power.

Comments for Public Posting:	It is not LAPD that needs to be held acccountable but the not-so-peaceful protestors that need to be held accountable. Don't listen to the crooked lies birthed from marxist antisemites.

It is wrong to support willful and premeditated violations of federal laws and University policies. The students arrested unleashed violence on those who's calling is to protect and serve our communities by enforcing laws the laws meant to protect us. The LAPD is to be commended for doing their jobs at USC and UCLA. I am also opposed to showing any leniency for those who repeatedy murder, rape, torture, mutilate, and abduct babies, children, teens, and adults. Therefore, I am respectfully asking you to oppose any resolution on a ceasefire for the war in Gaza. Any reported food shortages are a result of the hamass government not distributing aid to civilians. A ceasefire will not remediate that. Only removing hamass will. Our shared humanity must not only rely on biased reports from organizations with agendas that fail their missions, such as Red Cross, Doctors without borders, unicef, UNDP, UNFPA, WFP, and Witld Health Organization. None of these so-called humanitarian organizations have checked on or been concerned with those who have white, black, brown , or yellow skin and were taken by hamas and Palestinians over 7 months ago Nor have these so-called humanitarian organizations spoken out against the murders. Sexual abuse, and starvation of those held in captivity. These organizations put politics before patients. Wasting resources on a resolution that will further divide community is just wrong. Please vote NO on item 24.

Comments for Public Posting: Bring the hostages home. Please don't turn your eyes away from the hostages who are trapped and need our help. There is a 1 year old baby, Kfir Bibas, who is currently held hostage for more than 200 days. Kfir's mother wants to hold him, her baby, like how our mothers want to hold their baby. Don't look away from the mother who wants to hold her baby.
